

BASIC TRAINING COURSE ON BIODYNAMIC AGRICULTURE,
4th May – 8th May 2026
SARG Training Center, Village SUPI, Ramgarh, Nainital
Member, BDAI, Bangalore

Candidate Application Form

This application form is for candidates interested in attending the 5-day Biodynamic Agriculture course at the SARG Training Centre, Supi. The course is a comprehensive module designed for individuals who have basic theoretical or practical knowledge of agriculture and wish to deepen their understanding. It is also suitable for those seeking a career change, individuals involved in the organic agriculture value chain, or anyone interested in experiencing structured learning in an organic farming setting.

The module includes both theory and hands-on practical sessions, introducing participants to the holistic principles of biodynamic farming as articulated by Rudolf Steiner. By the end of the course, participants will gain foundational knowledge and practical insights to begin developing an organic farm.

In addition to the 5-day course, participants have the option of an exposure visit that includes an overnight stay with a farmer family in the Bio Village adjoining the Training Centre, at an additional cost of ₹1,500. This experience offers valuable first-hand insight into real-time farm life and biodynamic practices.
